

Peirce College Business and Accounting Graduate Earnings

The information in the tables below reflects self-reported responses of Peirce College graduates. The data is excerpted from the most recent (2022-23) Peirce College Graduate Survey (First Destination/NACE). See the link on this webpage to the complete 2022-23 Graduate Report.

In examining the earnings of graduates by program, we find that Peirce Accounting students fall within the largest-reported salary categories for Peirce graduates: between $40,000 - $60,000. Business graduates report somewhat higher salaries in the range of $60,001 - $70,000.

40% of 2022-2023 graduates reported make over $60,000, compared to just 29% of 2021-2022 graduates. 80% make over $40,000, a 6% improvement from the 2021-2022 graduating class and a 15% improvement from 2020-2021.
